

“And God said, It’s Your Time Now”

Dear Rev. Kasirye,

Praise be to the most High God, how are you doing and how is your family? Give each of them a Holy kiss for me. Last year, when you held conferences in Kampala, I was one of those who came with a group of pastors from Rwanda. I thank God very much for the blessings I received at those conferences, and would like to share my testimony with others.

On Thursday the first week at Kampala Pentecostal Church (The worship conference), when it came time to pray for all the attendees, some of the ladies came over to pray for me. As they were praying, one of them prophesied over me and said, “lady for a long time you have been praying I see a bowl in the hands of God getting to the brim (full)”. I took that to mean that God had heard my prayers and was about to answer them.

Pastor Mary from Rwanda

After the conferences, we returned to Rwanda very happy and praising God. That night after we got home with my sister, after a very good time in prayer, praise and worship, and had rested for the night, I had a dream in which I saw Jesus coming and sitting in front where I was kneeling. He came and handed me a very big Golden watch, which He put on my left arm, and He said, “IT’S YOUR TIME NOW!” In my mind, I understood what Jesus meant, but in the morning when I told the dream to my sisters, the interpretation did not make sense. But that very week, God was at work. A lady in Germany called a friend of hers in Kampala who happens to know me asking her to go and help them in their Church in Germany, because things were not going well. The sister in Kampala recommended me to the lady in Germany and also passed on my phone number. Soon after that conversation, I received a call from the lady in Germany (who I had never met before), and was asked to go and help them. They sent me an air ticket, and I went to Germany for three months. The Lord was with me, people got healed, and many in the church increased in their prayer life. May Jesus’ name be lifted on high. I thank God for you.

By the way, the day before I had the dream, due to the joy in my heart from the blessings at the conferences, the Lord had put on my heart to give away something. But I felt that I really had nothing of value that I could. Then I remembered, that I had my one beautiful dress that someone had just offered me as a present. So on the last day of the conference at KPC, I gave my beautiful dress to one of the ladies from the Father’s House Team, and after giving it away in obedience, I felt very happy. Little did I know that my dress would be the seed, which God would use to meet my needs. I had surrender to God my best, all that I had and in return, He remembered me and blessed me with the trip to Germany and also answered other prayers. Indeed my bowl is up to the brim.

The Lord is so good. Trust Him, put your confidence in Him, and never lose hope.

Please send my greetings to everyone at WHM.
